Cocina del ciruelo

Tierra del Sol

Outdoor cooking that harmonizes with nature and offers an open dining experience. It is equipped with a work bar, storage shelves and a functional distribution that facilitates the collective preparation of food. A central tree provides shade and freshness, integrating the design of the agro-ecological village to encourage coexistence and learning about healthy and sustainable food.

A photograph of a traditional building with a thick thatched roof made of dried palm fronds. The building has a light-colored stucco base and large wooden-framed windows. It is situated in a desert environment with agave plants and a large prickly pear cactus in the foreground. The sky is a vibrant blue with wispy white clouds. The word "Gaia" is overlaid in a large, white, serif font in the center of the image.

TIERRA DEL SOL

A COMMON AREA DESIGNED FOR COEXISTENCE, LEARNING, AND CREATIVITY. BUILT USING GREEN CONSTRUCTION TECHNIQUES, IT COMBINES THE STRENGTH OF BAMBOO WITH THE FRESHNESS OF PALM LEAVES. ITS OPEN, ORGANIC DESIGN MAKES IT THE IDEAL PLACE FOR WORKSHOPS, MEETINGS, AND GROUP ACTIVITIES, OFFERING A WELCOMING SPACE THAT INVITES INSPIRATION AND THE EXCHANGE OF KNOWLEDGE.

The image shows the interior of a small, rustic shop. A wooden counter runs across the middle, with a computer monitor and cash register behind it. To the left, a wooden shelving unit holds various products, including bags of coffee and bottles of oil. To the right, a wooden cabinet displays more bottles and bags. The walls are white and decorated with various items, including a framed picture of a deer, a heart-shaped mirror, and several small insects. The floor is made of light-colored tiles.

Tiendita

Tierra del Sol

The village has its own shop, where you can buy organic products and fresh harvests from its gardens, offering healthy, high-quality food straight from the fields.

Bioestanque

A biodiversity sanctuary with self-sustaining habitats, where beauty and peace converge in harmony.
